“ I feel so fortunate to have known such a loving person as Mrs. Brown She was the matriarch of Griggs street, my moms best friend and my second mother. I will always remember all the days and evenings you spent down at my house talking and laughing with my mother . I'll never forget your smile. To the Brown family , you have my deepest heartfelt sympathy. The world has lost someone very special.

Love,

“ You are free! God has you now sitting at his feet and touching the hem of his garment. An Angel you were and now will forever be! The beautiful woman who was a second mother to me! An Angel who imparted into my life then and now, you will always be apart of me- in my heart and in my mind. I truly want you to know that your were truly loved.

Love,
Kimberly (West) Marion

“ You are free now! God has you at his feet where are truly touching the hem of his garment. Angels come into your life to guide you, nurture you, teach you, and even chaste you but I know you performed all the task you were brought into my life to perform. You will be missed! I feel as though another beautiful array of light has gone out in my life BUT you will always remain in my heart and in my mind! Rest in peace my second MOTHER! For you have performed a job Well Done!

Love always,
Kimberly (West) Marion

“ May the good memories keep a smile on your face and in your heart at this time. I Love you All, Eva, Evan and Nailah

“ I can truly say that I was blessed to grow up with a second mom. I will never forget those days when I literally spent my entire days down at the Browns. I was always treated just like one of the family. It feels like just yesterday that Ms. Brown and mama were selling Avon. Those were much better times. Ms. Brown, you will be missed but I know that we will all reunite one day. To the entire Brown family. You were my second anchor and I will never forget the kindness and warmth that you all showed me through the years .

Love always
