“ I just looked at all of the pictures you shared of Aunt Alice and I want to say thank you because they showed her true inner self that shined all the way through to her beautiful warming smile and laughter. Aunt Alice always from the first time I met her, made me feel welcomed and happy. I'm so thankful I got to spend time with her at her home in 2021 after the kiss of my mother because she and Thomasene helped me through that difficult time. I sure do love Aunt Alice and I thank God for allowing me to have her as my Aunt. I'm so sorry for your loss and I know we'll see her again when we all get to heaven. Respectfully and lovingly spoken, Angie Tyler
