“ A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. Please accept our condolences, and know that Shug will not be forgotten. May God bless and comfort your family during this time of grief.

“ Every summer as a child, I went to visit my great-grandmother, Ellen Ferguson, in Columbus, MS. And every summer, I forged a bond with my cousin "Shug," my great-aunt Ethel's babyboy.

We had soooo much fun running up and down the streets of the northside (and ocassionally, the southside too), playing softball in the playground, pooling our money to buy treats from Honeycutt's or the "curb market," and getting whippings together for going uptown!

Shug, know that I love you, I will miss you, and you are forever in my heart.

Rest in bliss.

Your cousin,

Joan
