

Mrs. Annie Orr Brooks

June 6, 1954 - September 26, 2025

Annie Mae Brooks was born on June 6, 1954 in Crawford, Mississippi. She passed away peacefully on September 26, 2025, at North Mississippi Medical Center – West Point surrounded by family. Annie was born to the late Sim and Earlean Orr. She accepted Christ at an early age and attended Greater Mt. Olive M.B. Church until passing.

Annie Mae Brooks united in matrimony to J.D. Brooks of Columbus, MS and welcomed their only child in 1975. To all who knew her, Annie was the embodiment of love, a gentle spirit who gave generously, uplifted those around her, and offered peace simply by being present. Her life's legacy of faith, compassion, and devotion to family will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Sim and Earlean Orr and her sisters Nettie (James) Ross and Clara Orr. She leaves her memories to be cherished by her husband, J.D. Brooks of Columbus, MS; daughter, Tracy Roberts of Columbus, MS; four sisters, Earnestine (Malcolm) Campbell of Columbus, MS, Carrie (Lee) Sanders of Columbus, MS, Willie Dean (Willie James) Weatherspoon of Columbus, MS, Nowetta (Sylvester) Short of Columbus, MS; three brothers, Sim (Mamie) Orr Jr of East St. Louis, IL, Gus (Vanessa) Orr of Columbus, MS, James Orr of Columbus, MS; six grandchildren — Sierra Roberts, Tiffany Roberts, Javaris Roberts, Breanna

Roberts, Kiahna Roberts, and Kenneth Durroh III; one great-grandson, Elijah Bennett, all of Columbus, MS, along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Annie was known for welcoming everyone with warmth and kindness, making her home a place of comfort, good food, and laughter.
