“ To the family of Annie Summerville, May God strengthen you in these times of bereavement. I do remember Annie traveling to Talladega, Alabama to see her grandson graduate from Pre-School. She and I had the privilege of meeting and sharing a bond of grand-parenting. She was a loving person because her love exemplifies through our grandson; he loves his family. May memories last forever as you ease through the sorrow day by day. One day at a time is all you can ask.
