“ My family and I are heart-sick over your great loss! We will be lifting all of you up before the throne of grace for months to come knowing that His peace will speak to your spirits. I remember all the times you spoke of him and how your face lit up and I cannot imagine your pain right now. I lost my mother a few months ago and as painful as that has been I know losing a child is the worst devastation we can ever have so my heart hurts for you. Prayers for you and Linda.
