

Mr. Charlie Harris

January 9, 1938 - January 15, 2025

Charlie Will Harris (Knot) was born on January 9, 1938, in Columbus, Mississippi to Rosie Bell Blakely Harris (Dude) and Henry Crenshaw. Charlie was raised by his grandparents Laura Lee and Mason Harris Sr. (Mung and Paw).

Charlie is preceded in death by his father, mother, grandmother, and grandfather. Charlie transitioned to glory peacefully in his home on January 15, 2025.

Charlie accepted Jesus Christ later in life at Pleasant Ridge

Baptist Church. Charlie was as a faithful member at Prepared Table Ministries where he served as a deacon under the leadership of Bishop Timothy Bailey.

Charlie attended Plum Grove School and Trinity Rosenwall in Crawford, Mississippi. He was married to Mollie Ann Randall. They later peacefully parted ways. She now lives in the Dallas, Texas area.

Charlie retired from Beneke after 35 years of being a dedicated employee. His unwavering kindness and devotion were a testament to his love and commitment. Charlie had a calm and meek spirit and possessed a strong faith in God. He loved the church and never hesitated to proclaim the goodness of God. Charlie nurtured and instilled values and faith into his nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and friends.

Charlie leaves to cherish his memories, his one and only beloved sister Annie Laura Anthony (Ann La). His niece Angel

Anthony-Brooks (Benard) of Macon, MS. His nephews Wardell Jr. (Doris) Anthony, Albert (Lora) Anthony, and Lawrence 'Sam' (Tonia) Anthony. Special friend like a son to him, Willie Gray who was his barber, mechanic, and personal taxi to the doctor and close cousin Willie James Harris who was also a special friend and personal taxi to the doctor.
