

Davie Morris

September 2, 1937 - January 9, 2025

Davie Morris was born on September 2, 1937, in Columbus, Mississippi, to Willie Lee Jones and Laura Sloan. He was baptized at an early age and grew up in Columbus, where he attended school before venturing to Detroit, Michigan, to begin his adult journey.

In Detroit, Davie began working for General Motors in February 1965, where he dedicated over three decades of service until his retirement in December 1997. Also, Davie was usher at Jerusalem Church of God in Christ for many years. After his retirement, he returned to his hometown of Columbus, Mississippi, in 2010.

Davie had a deep love for travel, cruising, and indulging in the finer things in life. Above all, he cherished his family. He is survived by his two children, David Moore and Danielle Miller, along with five grandchildren, who were the joy of his life. He departed this life on Thursday, January 9, 2025, in Memphis, Tennessee, at the age of 87. Davie was preceded in death by his parents, Willie Lee Jones and Laura Sloan, Bonus Mother- Victoria [Sallie] Jones and several siblings: Daisy McCottrell,

Louise Fulgham, Helen McCottrell, Allen McCottrell, John McCottrell, Betty [Susie] McCottrell, George McCottrell, Matressia (Pat) Ousley, Tommie Jones, and LA Hairston.

Davie leaves behind to cherish his memories his sisters, Doris Jean Hughes, Rosie Mae McCottrell, Johnnie Smith, Barbara Riser, Lorna Maxie and Lillian (Gray) Murray; his son David Moore, his daughter Danielle Miller; nieces, nephews, and a host of extended family and friends.

His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
