Tribute Wall

“ Not you, Desi. When I heard what happened to you, my heart dropped and my stomach ached. I was in tears and disbelief. I know it's been years, but I couldn't find the strength to write then. I remember the last time I saw you in Virginia before I moved. If I had known that would be our last hug, I would have held you so much longer.

You were always the protector—so kind, so gentle, and so loving. You adored your mother and sisters, and you always made sure your family was taken care of. There will never be another like you. I truly miss you, my dear friend. May you rest in peace.
