“ Sister - I thank God for the time we spent together last year. We had so much to say to each other. We found out that we had so much in common. We enjoyed sitting on deck, reading, talking, people watching, and nodding! We told each things that we wouldn't have told another soul. We promised to love each other as only sisters can. We thought we had years to do this. God loved you best. He knew you were suffering, and said "Come home my child and rest". I will see you again, my sister. All my love, Margie
