

Mrs. Gloria Jamison

January 29, 1943 - December 20, 2024

Gloria J. Jamison was born January 29, 1943 to William and Pinkie Jamison in Prairie, Mississippi.

Gloria confessed Jesus Christ as Lord May, 1969 at the age of 26 at Regent Street Church of God in Christ, Roxbury, Massachusetts. Gloria started to win souls to God immediately. Her Pastor, the late Bishop L. C. Young, recognized the anointing on her and he would often call her to come forward in the services to minister to bring soul to the Lord. The “gift of the word of knowledge” worked through her from her early beginning in the Lord. She knew by the Spirit when individuals were ready to be saved, and called them out and they were saved. As Gloria matured in the Lord she entered the teaching ministry at Regent Street Church of God in Christ. Later in the summer of 1978 she was led of the Spirit to return to Mississippi, and she became a pioneer as a female minister here ministering on the radio and in various churches.

Finally in September, 1988, Maranatha Faith Center was birthed in Columbus, Mississippi. There Gloria with her brother, the late Steve M. Jamison, taught the word of God and conducted the prayer ministry.

As a result of her prayer ministry, many souls were saved and filled with the Holy Spirit throughout the Golden Triangle area. That ministry blossomed into the ISM School of Ministry where many young and old, women and men were prepared for the ministry. Her curriculum was comparable to that taught at Oral Roberts University. She offered licenses to both men and women without discrimination.

She leaves to mourn the following children: Kurus J. Jamison, Mechalie C. Jamison (Kuleesha), Dwana V.

Spann; and the following grandchildren: Pinkie Spann, Jass Washington Jamison, Kaitlyn Jamison,

Mechiya Jamison, Mechalie Jamison, Jr., and Matthew Brown, Jr. She leaves to mourn the following

Siblings: William Jamison, Jr, (Diane) Norman C. Jamison, Sr., Harriette Jamison, and Matthias Jamison

(Yvette). Finally she leaves to mourn a host of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father and mother William Jamison and Pinkie Jamison and by two siblings, Bettye Jamison Brown, and Steven M. Jamison.

“ Please accept our heartfelt condolences for the loss of your mother, sister, faithful well-water-woman of God. Such an awesome gift to the Body of Christ in teaching, preaching, counseling, leadership training, loving and caring... She will be truly missed but the legacy she left behind will a catalyst for us to press on and to come up hither. She fought a good fight, finished her course and thus saith the Lord, “well done my good and faithful servant “ come take your rest. Sent to the Jamison family with love and remembrance of Sis Gloria. Bro. & Sis. Dent
