

James Trey Granderson III

November 8, 1986 - March 26, 2023

Visitation will be from 1-6 p.m. Friday at Lee-Sykes Funeral Home of Columbus. Services will be Saturday, 11 a.m. at M.U. Baptist Church. Burial will follow at Memorial Gardens

James (Trey) Granderson III was born in Starkville, MS on November 8, 1986 to James, Jr. and Lena Granderson. He departed this earthly world on March 26, 2023. Trey confessed his faith in Christ at an early age at Missionary Union Baptist Church, where he faithfully served on the usher board.

Trey graduated from New Hope High School in 2005.

Trey began working at Columbus Light and Water in August of 2006, where he started in distribution and later became a water operator and served for 16 years.

Trey was best known for his gentle spirit and smile that lit up any room that he walked into.

He was united in holy matrimony to Brittany Sherell Johnson on February 24, 2018 and to this union a beautiful baby boy was born July 3, 2021, James "Drew" Lee Granderson, IV.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loving wife, Brittany and their son Drew. His parents James, Jr. and Lena Granderson, his sister Reba (Lamarcus) Phillips of Columbus, two brothers-in-law, Takarion (Shannon) Tate of Starkville, MS and Aaron (Ashley) Malone of Tyler, TX, four nieces Addison Phillips of Columbus, MS, Takeiyah Tate of Amory, MS, Ashlyn Malone, of Tyler, TX, Kaitlyn Fulgham of Starkville, MS, and two nephews Aiden Phillips of Columbus, MS, Aaron, Jr. of Tyler, TX and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

He was truly loved and will be sorely missed!!

How can I get in touch with this family? My grandfather was born James Granderson in 1931 and was put up for adoption shortly after. In digging into my family, I am really trying to see who I am and where I came from?
