“ My Navy Brother, you will be truly missed. Your Vicksburg family has come together to pay homage to you. We just spoke a few short weeks ago and you had the voice of a mighty warrior...I never would never imagine it would be our last time. We serve a Mighty God, and he called you home to continue the fight in his Army. I can see you now, with your pressed dungarees, spit shined boots, and a marlin spike with a monkeys fist knot tied to it...Rest easy my friend, we git the watch...

“ Link was my big brother on the Vicksburg. He was from Macon Mississippi and I was Macon Georgia. I pretty much followed him every where. I remember him always trying to freestyle, they were funny but terrible...lol. He had big heart and I will never forget that.

“ Recently heard the news of my military brother going away...I hurts to lose a brother, a father, a son, a friend! We've been friends for about 20 years on the USS Vicksburg and been family every since. I pray that God watches over the family, friends, and everyone else who has been impacted by this heartbreaking news. My condolences to you all. Much love and respect to you all...love you Link....brothers 4 life!!!
