“ I moved to Alabama 5 years ago from Dallas, Texas to take care of my Dad. Marvin was the first person outside my family that I met, we instantly became friends. What a wonderful 5 years of friendship that I will treasure the rest of my life. We then became co-workers at the Dismals Canyon. Marvin, always smiling, how are you doing always, a very caring, God loving soul. All of us will never be able to comprehend his not coming back to us. When he needed rest he would go home to Columbus, Mississippi to rest a while but was always glad to get back. The Dismals will never be the same without him.

Love you more than you will ever know but will see you again because you are in God's hands with all his Angels.
