“ As a boy, grew up watching Tommie show us how to be a man. And just as anyone else, he was not perfect but made to conscious effort to always strive for perfection. There something about watching a grown man be a grown man, that makes you want to become a grown man. The last conversation he had, in my heart, he was at peace. He understood the path that he must take. I am grateful to watch a grown man do grown man things. To my cousin May, Tasha, and Boris. I pray that you can find peace in the mist of a troubling time and joy in knowing that his pain is now gone. Rest is for the weary. ”
